from Evil Hat (================================ ============ An arcade-style RPG created by Evil Hat Productions. Derived from their "PAD - Player vs. Adventurer" source code release. == What is RAD? == RAD is a traditional 2D sidescrolling RPG written in the LPC-1747. Each level is an interconnected maze, with traps, monsters, and random events to affect your ability to explore and experience. Use a combination of dexterity, timing, and luck to navigate the fictional journey through planet "Zunesia-Shit". == BOSSES == Bosses are randomly selected and appear in each level. Some bosses have multiple forms with unique abilities and traits. Certain bosses also have variable room layouts and/or randomly appear only in specific rooms. If you defeat a boss, an "Experience" message will be displayed which increases your "ATK" and "MORP". > Exterior Bosses: > ------------- > > Many of RAD's bosses come in what I call an "Exterior" form. > These exterior bosses appear on screen during the experience stage of > the adventure, rather than during battle. Exterior Bosses will always attack you with a non-stun attack (such as fire, water, or gravity). > Abyssal Boss: > ---------------- > A special boss which lives in deep waters and can only be seen > via sonar. Normal attacks will knock you off balance, making you > vulnerable to special damage. Unlike non-abyssal bosses, Abyssal > bosses will randomly appear in any room in the dungeon, rather than > only appearing in specific rooms. > The Abyssal boss has multiple special attacks. The main one is > "Engulf" which will throw out (and destroy) several small creatures > onto the battlefield, for a higher chance of getting absolutely > nothing. > > Gigaanto: > ---------- > These giant lobsteresque creatures can take several forms and each > form attacks with it's own set of elemental attacks. Gigaants will > release bombs or other projectiles when they appear on screen. > > BM-Riddles: > ---------------- > These strange black scorpions will crawl onto the screen,

An MC that can't get his thoughts off his mind, even after he tries his hardest. He's tried everything, from seeing a therapist to meditating. But he can't seem to shake his intrusive thoughts or bad memories, until one day someone from his dreams starts talking to him. The next day, he wakes up in a strange place without memory of the previous day. And he can't remember who he is. Nothing but his thoughts of dreams, memories, and his own inner darkness can help him... Who Is This Game For? This game is meant for people who find it hard to just sit back and let life happen without getting involved. Even if you try your hardest to do so, you still find that your mind wanders away and allows bad thoughts and memories to fill your head. This game aims to help you get back on track, and also to help you understand what to do in such a situation. Anxiety disorders, depression, OCD, and other similar conditions. Who Is It For? This game is for anyone who feels like they have made great progress in life and suddenly start to develop intrusive thoughts or memories. Or maybe you simply don't want to be that OCD girl anymore. Keep in mind that even if you are in the latter case, this game is still for you! If you can't contain your thoughts and memories, then you will need help, and this game might be able to help you with that. No matter how chaotic your mind may be, if you feel that your thoughts and memories are too much for you to take, then this game is meant for you. If you are not seeking help, this game is not for you! No game will help you with your thoughts like no one else will. You are the only one who knows what you can handle. There is no right or wrong way to feel. After all, I'm just a lonely guy trying to make his way through life, but I still have intrusive thoughts, and sometimes good memories that fill my head. And sometimes, those thoughts and memories cause me pain. What Makes This Game Special? Take control of a descendant of a legendary knight that is trying his hardest to cope with his intrusive thoughts. Explore a vast and beautiful world, and many different areas to navigate. Go through hard and tough situations that are sure to break your heart. You can talk to your friends and family about your thoughts by connecting to a Live Distortion Room! Learn what
