Haulin' is a trucking simulation game, available for iPhone, iPod Touch, and iPad. Featuring: Four customizable modes (Class, Daily, Race, and Career) that offer over 500 levels and challenges Fifteen trucks and their own load to haul Three game-play modes (Sandbox, Race, and Career) Over 150 cities with twenty-one highways that you can use to haul your cargo Five fun maps and five exciting cities to drive and play in Overtake and Evade other vehicles on the road and pull off some stunts Steer around hazards and avoid moving traffic On-screen steering wheel controls to increase speed and shift gears Mileage and time to earn money Cargo weight and balance affects speed, fuel, and gas Stick with trucks in your fleet While there are two primary gameplay modes (Sandbox and Career) that span 40+ levels of transportation, the main, and only critical difference is that the career mode features a continuous race from when you take the wheel in the Sandbox until you unlock the Career Mode later on. The only way to earn experience points and earn money in the Sandbox mode is to just drive through, while in the Career mode, you actually earn miles, money and experience points through routes and different challenges through the various cities. Not only does the Career mode feature continuous racing from when you take the wheel in the Sandbox mode, but there are also continuous challenges that can take place anywhere on the road, including the career levels. PayToDrive Applications From The same development team behind 18 Wheels of Steel, Haulin' is the complete transportation simulation game for the iPhone, iPod Touch, and iPad. Make some cash and reach new milestones in this fast-paced trucking simulator. About Dejalu Games Dejalu Games is a mobile game development studio that is based in Southern California and was founded in 2011. Haulin' features: Complete simulation of the trucking industry, from choosing a route to deciding where to rest in the next town Break through obstacles such as trucks slowing down to avoid accidents, police cars blocking your way, and more Complete real-world map with 40+ cities and 22 highways Play through 3 fun modes; "Sandbox", "Race", and "Career" Four different trucks including semi-trucks, 6-wheeled trucks, Flatbeds, and RVs Driving and maneuvering a variety

DriftWritten by: Jamison BoazAlbum Art by: @NachozArtsGameplay The Fire in Your Heart Is Burning! In order to awaken her heart's desire, Cait Sith searched for the maimed creature to fulfill its dream. Releasing us forever from this cage With my heartbeat for you I hear the wind calling to me It's beckoning me from far away We'll never know what lies ahead for us If we can't find a way to turn the page I know that you can feel me In these dreams I'm calling out Waking up Open the door I'll tear through the darkness With my heartbeat for you Can you feel me lost in this world? In these dreams I'm calling out Waking up Open the door I'll tear through the darkness With my heartbeat for you A NEW AGE COMES TO LIFE For us forever! =====A NEW AGE COMES TO LIFE Lyrics: Cristina
